

Training record - Collection and storage of tissue at BDN centres

Trainee (print):

Trainer (print):

| Item  | Trainer* | Trainee* | Date complete |
|---|----------|----------|---------------|
| Trainee has received local training in health and safety practices when working with human tissue                       |          |          |               |
| Trainee has read and understands the onCore UK SOP: PC004   |          |          |               |
| Trainee understands the reason for confirming consent before obtaining tissue   |          |          |               |
| Trainee knows how many samples to collect for onCore UK   |          |          |               |
| Trainee understands the need for complete and accurate sample labelling   |          |          |               |
| Trainee understands the need for a QC slide from each block   |          |          |               |
| Trainee understands the importance of using linked barcodes for identification of blocks and their associated QC slides |          |          |               |
| Trainee is aware of the procedure to follow if there are any deviations from SOP: PC004                                 |          |          |               |

* Please initial as each item is satisfactorily completed.

Statement of competence:

The trainee is competent to collect tissue for the onCore UK tissue bank in line with the requirements of SOP: PC004.

Signed:

Trainer:

Date:

Trainee:

Date: