

- What is meant by quality management?
- What are the principles of quality Management?
- Which of these principles can be applied to research tissue banking?

- What measures can be put in place to ensure fair access to samples from tissue banks?
- What factors govern development of an access policy for tissue banks
- What further work needs to be done to improve good practice for quality management for and access to research tissue banks?